OUTLINES

The conferesce at St. [illegible]urg yesterday between the rev[illegible]ry committees decided that the time is not ripe for an armed uprising, but it was agreed to prepare for it and manifestoes were issued to the revolutionary groups and to the soldiers and sailors.——In the Federal Court at Chicago yesterday, Judge Landis decided that the $12,000,000 to $21,000,000 of property in Zion City does not belong to Prophet Dowie nor to Voliva, but to the church; a receiver was appointed.——The legal profession at Birmingham, Ala., is in a quandary over the status of a novel situation which prevented the hanging yesterday of John Williams, a prominent man convicted of murder, a local judge having prevented the execution by issuing a writ of habeas corpus.——The Virginia Corporation Commission has decided that the act providing 2 cents a mile as the passenger rate on railroads in Virginia is in conflict with the constitution of the United States.——President Roosevelt yesterday appointed L. H. Grant postmaster at Goldsboro, N. C.——Two negroes were lynched in Polk county, Fla., on Thursday night.——The will of Russell Sage, probated at New York yesterday, leaves his $70,000,000 to $80,000,000 estate to his wife, with the exception of $25,000 each to his nephew and nieces and $1,000 to a sister who died since the will was made.——Secretary of State Root received a tremendous welcome in Rio Janeiro yesterday, salutes being fired by the forts and warships and thousands of people rushing about and cheering; he called on the President of Brazil.——New York Markets: Money on call easy, 2 to 2½ per cent., ruling rate 2¼, closing bid 2, offered at 2½; spot cotton quiet 10.90; flour steady; wheat seady, No. 2 red 82½ elevator; corn firm, No. 2 58 elevator; oats steady, mixed 39½; turpentine steady; rosin steady, strained, common to good, $4.00 to $4.16.

Gov Glenn has allowed it to be announced that he is an "original Bryan man." That sounds like band-wagon talk.

Hannibal L. Godwin is his name. For leadership and victory Hannibal is a good name.

The eight-hour law cut no figure in the Fayetteville convention, nor did the delegates get any pay for overtime. But on the 354th ballot the Godwin laborers struck for more votes, and got 'em.

The Louisiana State Crop Commission claims to have discovered a variety of cotton that is proof against the boll weevil. Very good. But what we want is a variety that is proof against the manipulations of Wall Street.

They tell us that Hackett is "after Blackburn's scalp" in the Eighth congressional district. As the glory of Spencer is his hair, he will practice all the elusiveness of the Indian to keep out of the way of Hackett's scalping knife.

The advocates of a two-cent passenger fare are unreasonable, as they will discover when the Legislature meets. The State has the power to regulate passenger and freight rates, just as it has to prescribe a legal rate of interest. But how would those of the two-centers who have money to lend like to have the legal rate of interest reduced to four per cent? All laws should be based on reason and common sense.

Periodically, for more than thirty years The Morning Star has advocated a public park for Wilmington. It may be doubted if there is another city of our population in the United States that has not provided a park for its people. Such a resort has become not only a comfort, but a necessity in every prosperous and progressive city. Ten or twenty acres of land near the corporate limits may be had for the asking, conditioned that the city make the necessary improvements.

The impression once prevailed here that the excursionists left very little money in town. That this was a mistake has long since been proven; and it is probably safe to say that, including their railroad fares, the excursionists who come here spend an average of one hundred thousand dollars each season. The railroad and steamboat lines are the chief beneficiaries; but the merchants, hotels, boarding houses, restaurants, saloon keepers and others all receive a share of the expenditures.

THE SHOCKLEY TRIAL

Set Down For Hearing in Superior Court on Monday of Coming Week

SEVERE ON BLIND TIGER

Solicitor Will Ask Verdict Only in Second Degree—Blind Tiger Fares Badly at Hands of Judge Jones—Proceedings.

The only feature of interest in the Superior Court yesterday was the arraignment of M. W. Shockley, charged with the killing of Frank Talbert, a marble cutter, in this city, last Summer. Counsel for the defendant pleaded not guilty and Judge Jones set the case down for trial for Monday morning. Solicitor Duffy anounced that he would not contend for a verdict of murder in the first degree but would prosecute for the crime in the second degree. It is expected that the greater portion of next week will be consumed in the trial. Mr. Shockley is represented by Messrs. Bellamy & Bellamy and Herbert McClammy, while Solicitor Duffy will be assisted in the prosecution by William J. Bellamy, Esq.

Another case of some interest yesterday was that of John Williams, charged with retailing liquor. He was captured by the police in the recent raids on the outskirts of the city. In court yesterday he was fined $100 and costs and put under justified bond of $200 to appear from term to term and show that he has not since been engaged in the illegal liquor traffic.

Court met at 9:30 and the Sheriff returned the following as jurors summoned for the day: B. F. Murphy, Geo. R French, J. D. Brown, A. Steljes, Wm. G. Sale, O. M. Hill, J. F. Huggins, Walter M. Collins, M. Newman, Wm. D Hall, J. K. Crump, E. R. Pickard, W. F. Newton, W. VanHardin,

GODWIN IS NOMINATED ON THE 354th BALLOT

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Fayetteville, N. C., July 27.—After an all night struggle, the Sixth District Congressional Convention this morning at 10:20 A. M., on the 354th ballot, nominated Hon. Hannibal L. Godwin, of Harnett, amid scenes of the wildest enthusiasm. The break came upon reconvening the sesison at 9:45 o'clock after a recess since 6 A. M., and was precipitated, so the knowing ones say, by a refusal of Robeson to listen to terms and a growing suspicion that the leaders in Brunswick, Bladen and Harnett would not be able to control their delegations in the event, for any cause, it became expedient for any one or all to withdraw their candidates. This feeling was further accentuated by what was construed by some an effort by Hon. Jno. G. Shaw, of Cumberland, to stampede the Convention for Patterson.

After the hum-drum of an all night session at 3:05 o'clock, while Cumberland was still out "consulting," in the market house three squares away, Robeson asked and was granted 30 minutes to patch up her differences. The latter delegation repaired to the Knights of Pythias Hall, also some distance away and a turbulent session of the Cumberland delegation resulted. At 3:50 o'clock the convention re-assembled and the two arriving delegations made a great hurrah upon their return. Those on the outside of affairs were certain that something had been done. A corps of University students led wild cheering for Patterson. It was here that the only "fun" of the convention broke lose. The caucus seemed to have only increased the disaffection in the ranks of Cumberland and the hosts of the Convention very soon occupied a good portion of the assembly hall with contending factions. They overflowed into the aisles and over into New Hanover's delegation, not a few of the latter having resented the intrusion. Chairman McLean pleaded in vain for order. Sergeant of Arms Monaghan was dispatched to quiet the tumult but his efforts were in vain. Sheriff George McLeod, of Robeson, lent his persuasive abilities, but 'twas all in vain. It was clear that a part of Cumberland at least desired to abandon their own candidate and influences were brought to bear on them to desist. The vote was called and Maj. McKeithan, the chairman, announced 25 1-3 of the county's vote for Patterson, 2.7 for Godwin, one-half a vote for Cook and 5.3 for Brown.

Q. K. Nimocks protested on the ground that the caucus had promised to give 26 1-2 votes to Cook as long as there was any chance for his nomination. His remarks were greeted with "That's not so" and several shook their fingers at Mr. Nimocks in a threatening manner. The chairman ordered the sergeant-at-arms to seat the delegation and get more force if necessary to preserve order. The Cumberland delegation overflowed the aisles and surged to and fro in heated controversy, the chairman and sergeant-at-arms pleading in vain for order. It was the exciting period of the convention. The lights were even turned out in an effort to restore quiet but this too was unsuccessful. Mr. D. B Brice, of Cumberland, at length gained the floor and explained the minutiae of the caucus. Maj. McKeithan also spoke of the caucus and said he had cast the vote as it was given to him in the convention hall after the caucus. Col. Short made the point that the convention should not take up the internal affairs of a delegation. Mr. C. J. Cooper withdrew the name of Mr. Cook in the interest of harmony. The roll call was then resumed, the total being: Brown, 78.3; Cook, 1-2; Godwin, 45.7; Patterson, 73.5. Bellamy, of Brunswick, asked and was given 30 minutes for consultation.

Brunskick returned after a brief interim, but remained solid for Godwin. On the 322nd ballot, J. G. McCormick, of Robeson, challenged the vote of his delegation as cast by Mr. Bond, the chairman. Thirty minutes was given for consultation. On the next ballot, Cumberland gave 27 and a fraction to Patterson and a small percentage to Godwin and Brown. New Hanover was then voting 24 for Brown and two for Patterson. All sides remained firm then and for the 31 succeeding ballots, the result varied very little from the following, which was the 523rd ballot:

Bladen—15 1-2 for Brown, 2 Godwin and 2 1-2 Patterson.
Brunswick—13 for Godwin.
Columbus—32 for Brown.
Cumberland—4.3 Brown, 2 Godwin, 27.7 for Patterson.
Harnett—24 for Godwin.

WEEKLY TRAP SHOOT

B. G. Empie Retains Medal on High Score Yesterday Afternoon—Some Fine Percentages Made By Individual Shots.

The Wilmington Gun Club had the most enthusiastic shoot of the season yesterday afternoon at the club grounds on the Suburban line. There was a large attendance and intense interest was manifested in the sport on the new traps.

Mr. Empie retained the medal with a score of 24 out of 25. He killed his first bird, lost the second and then ran 23 straight. He also made another run of 22 straights in a subsequent event. This fine work was beaten, however, by Mr. Holmes, who ran 25 straight in the last event. Mr. Warren's percentage of 93 is worthy of mention. He was closely followed by Mr. Empie with Mr. Holmes and Mr. Boushee, with percentages of 91, 90 and 90 respectively.

WM. H. TURLINGTON

Venerable and Highly Esteemed Citizen Passed Away Last Night—After Brief Illness—Funeral Arrangements Will Be Announced Later.

Mr. W. H. Turlington, one of Wilmington's most venerable and highly esteemed citizens, passed away at his home, No. 508 North Fourth street, last night at 11:30 o'clock. While Mr. Turlington had been in feeble health for some time his friends and loved ones were totally unprepared for the shock which comes with the announcement of his death. Mr. Turlington was out yesterday afternoon as usual but went home to supper complaining of feeling badly. After supper his condition grew rapidly worse and the end came at the hour named in spite of all that could be done for him.

Mr. Turlington was 80 years of age the 22nd of last February and had resided here practically all his life. He was quiet and unassuming, possessing a fine character and drawing many to him in ties of warmest friendship. He leaves to mourn their loss his devoted wife and one daughter, Miss Grace Turlington, who have the sympathy of very many friends in their sorrow.

The arrangements for the funeral of Mr. Turlington will be made later.

New Dock at Southport.

The steamer Wilmington is to have a splendid dock at Southport to take the place of the one destroyed by fire a couple of months ago when the steamer Lilly was destroyed by fire. Work is now in progress on the new dock, and it will be the most extensive and convenient passenger and freight landing that Southport has ever had.

ARTISTIC TRIUMPH

Musicale Last Night at Casino, Wrightsville Beach, a Delightful Success

FOR BENEFIT OF HOSPITAL

About $200 Was Realized—Prominent Young People Took Part and Gave Infinite Pleasure to Large Audience—The Programme.

The concert last night in the Casino, Wrightsville Beach, under the auspices of the Ministering Circle of the King's Daughters for the benefit of the James Walker Memorial Hospital was declared an artistic triumph for those having it in charge and those taking part in the several numbers on the programme. The audience was large, taxing the capacity of the beach playhouse to such an extent that extra seats had to be provided in the aisles. More than $200 was realized as a net sum for the worthy benefit for which the entertainment was given. All cars to the beach during the early evening were crowded with among the leading society of the city and a number from the beach were also present for the delightful affair.

The Lumina orchestra kindly volunteered its services for the occasion, an act which was very much appreciated by the ladies and which contributed in no small measure to the success of the occasion. Following the overture by the orchestra, the programme was rendered as follows:

"Thy Name (May Knight Wood), by Mrs. A. deR. Harris.

Tableaux—"Reveries of a Bachelor," by six young ladies, Miss Goldie Stein, as "Young Girl"; Miss Bessie Burruss, "Summer Girl"; Miss Elovine Burruss, "Golf Girl"; Miss Bessie Bridgers, "Society Girl"; Miss Daisy Burbank, "Masked Girl"; Miss Margaret Bridgers, "The Bride."

Solo—"Angus MacDonald (Roeckle), by Mr. F. Carley West.

Tableaux—"Nydia," by Miss Marguerite Walker.

Solo—Mrs. E. K. Bryan.

Tableaux—"When a Bachelor is Ill, Complications Often Arise Which no Amount of Medicine Will Cure" (Gibson), by Miss Bessie Gore Victor Grainger, Jr., and Richard Bradley.

Solo—"Sequillida" (Carmen), by Miss Van Lill.

Tableaux—"In the Days to Come the Churches May Be Fuller," by Miss Hazel Love.

Solo—"Under the Rose" (Fisher), Mrs. A. deR. Harris.

Impersonations of an Old-time Darkey—By Mr. Henry Angel.

Quartette—(a) The Palms; (b) Slumber Song, by Mrs. A. deR. Harris, Mrs. Greene Fenley and Mr. A. S. Holden.

Miss Van Lill was kind enough to respond to an encore of her number on the programme, which was exceptionally well rendered. She sang in sweet voice, as an encore, "Mighty Like a Rose" (Nevin).

During the evening a candy and lemonade booth was in charge of Mrs. Chas. S. Grainger, Mrs. F. W. Dick and Miss Lucile Murchison. From this was served during the evening tempting refreshments by pretty little waitresses in attractive costumes. The last named were Misses Williamson, Ethel Solomon, Lucile Polvogt, Lossie Cotchett, Marie Grainger, Wilhelmina Harlow and Nora Corbett. The pictures were arranged and managed by Misses Annie Blount DeRosset and Carrie Myers. Mr. Seymour Merrill was stage manager; Mr. W. A. Dick in charge of tickets and Mr. J. Wallace Carmichael door-keper.

The ladies desire to thank the following for generous contributions to the success of the affair: Messrs. S. W. Sanders, R. A. Montgomery, Wilmington Grocery Co., J. H. Watters, Independent Ice Co., Holmes Grocery Co., C. W. Polvogt, Mr. W. Scott Decker, manager of Stieff's Music House, the Consolidated Company and the daily papers.

The Raleigh and Southport.

In Fayetteville there is much gratification and enthusiasm at the entrance into that town of the Raleigh and Southport Railroad, which is now running trains on regular schedule. It is a singular coincidence, remembering always, of course, that Fayetteville is a dry town, that the first solid car load of freight handled over the new line was a solid car of wines and liquors for the Raleigh dispensary. The shipment went forward last week and was attached to the regular passenger train, the freight schedule having not been fully made up at that time.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

—Raleigh News and Observer, July 27: "Mr. J. D. Nutt, of Wilmington, is a Raleigh visitor."

—Misses Sue Clark and Leila Phillips, of Tarboro, returned home yesterday morning after a pleasant week spent at the Seashore Hotel, Wrightsville Beach.

—Miss Hattie Birmingham, of Laurinburg, who has been in the city visiting Miss Florrie Anders, left yesterday afternoon for Lumberton, where she will spend a while with relatives, returning thence to her home.

—Charlotte Observer, July 27: "Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Fore and daughter, Elizabeth, have returned from Wrightsville Beach, where they spent some time.—Mrs. M. L. Harris and daughters, Misses Kate and Fannie Harris, have returned from Wrightsville Beach, where they spent some time."

There will be two fast games of baseball on the Hilton Park diamond this afternoon. The first game will be between the Seventh Street Rattlers and the Y. M. C. A. team, and will be called at 3 o'clock sharp. The second game, between the Monarchs and Market Street Giants, will be called at 5 o'clock. NEGRO DROWNED FROM BOAT.

Young Colored Man Made Mis-Step Backward and Was Lost.

Dan Ray, colored, about 23 years of age, while standing on the deck of the river steamer A. J. Johnson, watching the steamer Wilmington pass down the river yesterday morning about 9:30 o'clock, made a mis-step backward, fell into 25 feet of water at the Burchison wharf and was drowned before those on board the Johnson could render him any assistance.

The colored man came to Capt. G. L. Watson, of the steamer Johnson, at Clear Run, Sampson county, several days ago and asked to be allowed to work his way down to Wilmington on the boat. He said that he was from Moore county and expected to find employment here. His body had not been recovered up to last accounts yesterday.

I. O. O. F. EXCURSION.

Annual Outing of Hanover Lodge at Carolina Beach.

The annual outing of Hanover Lodge No. 145, I. O. O. F., at Carolina Beach yesterday was a success in every particular. Large crowds went down on the several trips of the steamer Wilmington and at the beach there were a number of features of interest and entertainment. Principal among these was the address by R. W. Davis, Esq., of Atlantic Lodge, Southport, N. C.

The committee in charge of the excursion was composed of Messrs. E. N. Penny, E. F. Johnson and Jno. E. Wood, and they are deserving of much credit for the pleasant manner in which everything passed off.

Reported Merger.

The Southport Herald of Thursday says: "An unconfirmed report is in circulation that the two steamboat companies operating between here and Wilmington have consolidated, forming one company. It is understood that this consolidation relates only to the passenger traffic and not the towing business. Rumor has it that great things are to be done."

HANNIBAL L. GODWIN.

The nomination of Hannibal L. Godwin by the congressional convention at Fayetteville, though not generally expected, will be none the less acceptable to the sturdy Democrats of the Sixth district. He will carry every county in the district, and his aggregate majority will run far up into the thousands.

Mr. Godwin is in close touch with the masses of the people—a strong exponent of true Democracy—and will make a faithful and efficient Representative of the great party that has placed its standard in his hands. In the prime of a young and vigorous manhood, he has the mental and physical ability to serve it well, both on the hustings and in the halls of Congress.

Entering the battle of life as a poor boy, by industry, energy and a sincere purpose to overcome the obstacles that environed him, he has attained a position of honor and usefulness of which he may justly feel proud, and is a striking example of the truth of the familiar lines,

"Honor and fame from no condition rise.
Act well your part—there all the honor lies."

The Morning Star congratulates Mr. Godwin on the great honor he has won. He is not without Legislative experience; but he will soon enter an untried and a broader field—one in which he will have ample opportunity for the fuller development of those mental qualities that have thus far marked his career. Young, well-poised, ambitious, and with natural ability of a high order, he will "act well his part" and reflect credit both on himself and on the people who have so signally honored him.

BRYAN ON ARBITRATION.

The Philadelphia Press (Republican) says:

"Mr. William J. Bryan seized the fortunate and happy moment, and every American is grateful to him for doing it, when he eloquently urged in the International Parliamentary Union at London mediation and arbitration before every war. It was a great service well performed. Mr. Bryan has again shown his great capacity to serve a great cause when he is on the right side and is himself right.

"But the reason why Mr. Bryan's words have weight is because he speaks for the third navy in the world. Who cares for the opinion on peace or war, mediation or arbitration, of weak nations?

"Why was Mr. Bryan heard? Because he is a great American. Why is a great American to-day heard and heeded in the council chamber of the nations? Because the thunder of our guns was heard in Manila Bay and Santiago before him.

"Behind the Court the Sheriff. Behind the Sheriff the posse. Behind the posse the armed forces of a free people. This makes the Court obeyed withoue resistance.

"Behind arbitration and mediation the English, French and American fleets. Behind these fleets puissant power of three free nations, ready to justify their words by their acts. If the Interparliamentary Union had not had behind it the moral weight of three great fleets, twice as strong as all other fleets put together, who would care for the academic opinions of Mr Bryan and his associates?

"If arbitration and mediation loom large today it is because the world's sea power rests to-day absolutely in the hands of three great, free nations, Great Britain, France and the United States. If they chose, they could today close the sea to militarism, and because they can universal arbitration draws near."

All of that is true and it reminds one of the old addage. "Nothing succeeds like success." If Col. Bryan had been speaking for the Republic of Panama his influence in the London conference would have been "what the little boy shot at." By our having a big stick, one of our distinguished Americans can cut some ice among the parliamentarians from the leading world powers. We are glad we are in a position to make our voice heard. The second "we" refers to the great American Republic.

DEMOCRATS FOR ROOSEVELT.

The Sta commends this editorial gospel from the Jacksonville Times-Union:

"Long ago the New York World asserted that Roosevelt would again be President and it seems to be laboring toward that end. It may be that it also desires to make good its word at our expense. But why Democrats should support a President who long since concluded to 'stand in with his party because his future lay with it' is hard to understand. Mr. Roosevelt has sacrificed much to 'remain solid.' His fame as a statesman will be finally wiped out by history because of these multiplied departures from policies he had declared 'necessary.' We grant he has done much that even a Bryan Democrat might have done, but he has been everything by turns and nothing long. When the national Democracy sacrifices itself and its past for a man of this character the end is not far away.

"On the other hand, the President has done much to demonstrate the National need of a Democratic successor. He has done enough to show that the departments are honeycombed with corruption, but he has never set the axe to the root of the tree. He has shown conclusively that trusts may sin, but he refuses to advocate the repeal of the tariff regulations which make trusts inevitable if not necessary.

"But if he has not gone far enough in some direction he has gone altogether too far in other paths for the Democrats to follow. He has distinctly advocated a war on wealth, per se, and no disciple of Jefferson can adopt this doctrine without disturbing the foundations on which Jefferson builded so wisely and so well. If we become Roosevelt men we can follow him to populism. We cannot remain Democrats. And when the World or any other authority asks us to do so, it is barking up the wrong tree. The South is Democratic and must remain Democratic, else the government will again change its character and we shall again jump from the frying pan into the fire. Some of us still remember what followed after 1865."

Our esteemed Jacksonville contemporary has said much in small space. It has spoken truthfully and well. It compasses the subject in a capital way. However, much more could be said why Democrats cannot stand for Roosevelt. It does look a little strange that while all the investigations were going on the demands of the Democrats in Congress for an investigation of the Departments were unheeded by the Republicans. If the investigation had been made it might have developed that defalcation of a clerk in the Treasury Department. Investigation of the Departments may prevent a lot of crockedness as well as discover many. However, we know of nothing that so goes against the grain with us as to see the President of the United States playing the politician. That was ugly news sent out from Oyster Bay a few days ago that the President was arranging the partisan plans for the Congressional campaign.

PRIVATE LETTER TO A FRIEND

How One Friend Approached Another Upon a Most Delecate Question.

IT WAS ABOUT DRUG HABIT

One Friend Who Was Cured By Keeley Treatment Advises Other to Go to the Greensboro Institute—It Cures.

The Keeley Institute, Greensboro, N. C:

Dear John:—

I know it is a delicate point I wish to approach you upon, yet "my dear old boy" it is so serious, and one that is bringing you down and carrying you to destruction day by day, and bringing your dear ones to poverty and want. You must remember John I have passed through all these ordeals; oftentimes I would give up in despair, feeling there was no hope of escape. I had no strength of my own. The drug had taken it all from me. I knew full well my condition and my inability to break the chains that held me fast and were carrying me down to the dark dungeons. I was losing confidence, and the respect of my friends and fellowmen, I became indifferent to business, and negligent to my family—everything going to waste, the future was dark and no prospect of reformation.

The physician came with his healing cure. My doubts were many. I watched day by day its efficacy. After days of waiting and watching my convictions were satisfied that this treatment would prove effectual—no humbug. I felt that if it was a cure for my brother who had fallen by the wayside it would be good for me. I made up my mind to take the treatment, and would prove a good patient. The 16th of January, 1892, I entered the hospital at Greensboro, N. C., for treatment. John, it did cure me. It removed the old robe, and placed a more brilliant one around me. It tore out the old structure and put a more substantial one within me; one I see that will stand all the storms and temptations that man is heir to. It caused the old scales that shut light out to drop off, and the glorious radiance of a new life to burst forth. Twelve years ago this blissful dawn came to me, and I was a cured man. Life renewed, energies revived, confidence in mankind established, faith in God restored, pathway to Heaven growing brighter every day. Oh, John, go there and do likewise, and you will bless the hour that led you to this port of peace. When this letter reaches you peruse it carefully and do not delay, for moments are precious. Pack your trunk, and buy a ticket for the city of Greensboro; call your hack for the Keeley Institute; you will find the best people, best nurses, and with it all the best old grandfather, W. H. Osborn, who will look after you in all your trials through treatment.

With love for your family and best wishes for your future, I am

Your friend,
W. T. WHITEHEAD.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—The ice men who raied the price have found out that the people can raise the place where there is no ice.—Atlanta Journal.

—"The only man who can beat Bryan' will become much more numerous after Bryan's vocal organs get into action again.—Washington Post.

—Louisville is organizing a great southern reception to Mr. Bryan. The Kentucky julip is doing a land office business in its circulation department this year.—Houston Post.

—It is not surprising that President Roosevelt, great warrior that he is, has been made an honary member of the G. A. R., since members of the G. A. R. are Gennerally All Republicans.—Indianoplis Star.

—According to a fashion sharp, the chignon is coming back. If you don't know what a chignon is, hunt up your old family album and look at that photograph of Aunt Mary that was taken back in 1863.—Boston Globe.

—There will soon be a concrete block plant in every village, and as it costs very little to make them, the price will necessarily go to a proper level. It is beyond question the building material of the future.—Birmingham Ledger.

—The Steel Rail trust, with a tariff bounty of $8 a ton, sells steel rails in America at $28 and sells them in Europe at $21, and yet Mr. Roosevelt says he will "stand pat" on the tariff, by means of which the steel and other trusts are fattened.

—"An honest man has nothing to fear from investigation," says Gov. Folk, of Missouri. This is true, but it seems to be difficult to get some of the men who are in the oil business to agree that there is any reason why other people should in their desire to investigate use so much time that might be otherwise employed.—Chicago Record Herald.

—The chief of the Massachusetts bureau of vital statistics has just announced that the native-born mothers of that commonwealth, have given birth to 57.17 per cent, fewer children than their own mothers, while 37.38 per cent more children have been born to foreign-born mothers than to their own mothers. If births continue to decrease at this rate, it is easy to see that it will not be long until there are no mothers in Massachusetts.—Chattannooga Times.

—There was an increase of wage-earners in the factories of the south in the years 1900-1905 of 139,501, or 19.3 per cent., against an increase of 16 per cent. in the whole union. The number of factory hands in 1905 was 863,125, the increase being most notable in Virginia, West Virginia, North Carolina, Tennessee, Mississippi and Louisiana. Visitors who spend their vacation in Virginia during the present summer observe a notable multiplication of new industries and widely diffused prosperity. The same phenomena are seen, it appears, all over the South at present.—Baltimore Sun.

—At Scotland Neck on Tuesday a well-known and highly respected colored man named Henry Dixon was kicked by a mule 25 years old, and died in less than two days.

—Judge George A. Jones is still confined to his room and bed and does not seem to be improving any. For the last two or three weeks he has been very nervous, giving his friends much anxiety.—Louisburg Times.

—Willis G. Briggs will be the next postmaster at Raleigh. His appointment to succeed Postmaster Bailey was recommended to the Postoffice Department on Thursday. Mr. Briggs is a newspaper man now employed on the Raleigh Evening Times. He is quite popular in Raleigh.

—The many friends of Dr. R. J. Brevard will regret to learn that he is dangerously ill at his home on South Tryon street. For six months his health has been failing, and his condition has now become critical. Dr. Brevard has a large circle of friends in this and adjoining counties. This sad news will cause them great grief. —Charlotte Observer.

—A large illicit distillery was captured by revenue officers on Wednesday in Orange county, some five or six miles from Durham. It was a very large copper still which was seized and destroyed. The officers also seized the other fixtures about the distillery, together with a barrel of whiskey. No arrest was made.

—Mr. Jesse L. Mayo, a member of the Mayo Bros. Hardware Company, of Wilson, died suddenly Wednesday afternoon in the hardware store. Apoplexy was the cause of his death. Mr. Mayo was a big-hearted, popular citizen. For years he served on the Wilson police force and for four years was deputy sheriff. For the past three years he has been in the mercantile business. He was 44 years old.

—What is believed to be a gang of counterfeiters has been located in Salisbury by Sheriff Julian, of Rowan county. The discovery was made through two silver pieces sent to the Sheriff from Cleveland, parties in that county having procured the spurious coin while in Salisbury. Federal officers are expected to takt a hand in running down the counterfeiters.

—Scotland Neck Correspondence: The largest single land deal in this community for many years is by Biggs & Johnson and G. K. Moore. They have purchased a large tract of timber and farm land some miles from Warrenton, known as the Peter Davis property. It was sold by Messrs. Alston and Bicket, of Louisburg. The tract contains 3,000 acres and the price paid was $30,000.

—The offer of the General Education Board to give Wake Forest College $37,500 on condition that its friends raise $112,500, so as to make an additional endowment of $150,000, has been accepted by the trustees of that institution and President Poteat, acting with the executive committee, will shortly secure a financial agent to raise the necessary $112,000.

—Raleigh News and Observer: Governor Glenn is in receipt of a letter from the Department of State at Washington informing him that under the new law no clerk of the Superior Court in the State is allowed to grant naturalization papers until he first files a statement with the Governor that he is a clerk of the Superior Court and has a seal and is under jurisdiction. Upon the receipt of this paper the Bureau of Naturalization will send blanks.

—Raleigh News and Observer: Hon. Spencer B. Adams, the Butler-Jim Young chairman of the Republican executive committee, is in Washington City. He told the Washington Post that the Republicans would make tremendous gains this year "and in the near future will carry the State." He claims that the Republicans will carry the Eighth, Ninth and Tenth districts, and that Blackburn will have a bigger majority than he had in 1904. He predicts that they will make many gains in the Legislature and talks in a roseate vein.

—A special meeting of the North Carolina Farmers' Protective Asociation was held in Raleigh on Thursday. The object of the meeting was to hear from delegates from the eastern county sub-divisions in regard to the furtherance of organization work in the East, and this purpose was achieved. An assistant organizer will be appointed for every eastern county by Grand Lecturer J. W. Gravely, of Rocky Mount, and before the Fall crop of tobacco shall have been marketed it is believed that the great organization's provisions for protecting the crop and insuring higher prices for tobacco, will be perfected.

—Mr. B. C. Brownell, of Providence, R. I., may establish a large jewelry factory in Elizabeth City in the near future. Mr. Brownell was there this week in consultation with local business men on this matter. He is a practical jewelry man, and is interested in factories in Providence. He says that his company proposes to organize a stock company, incorporated at $40,000, one-half to be subscribed by them and the remainder raised locally. Mr. Brownell said that the proposed factory would employ 40 or 50 young ladies and 25 or 30 men. The help required in a jewelry factory is of a very high order.

—The citizens of Pittsboro and vicinity, becoming alarmed at the frequent accidents on the Pittsboro Railroad, held a public meeting in the court house Thursday evening and passed the following resolution: "Resolved, That we, the citizens of Pittsboro and vicinity, in public meeting assembled at the court house, do respectfully petition and urge the Corporation Commissioners of North Carolina to investigate at once the causes of accidents on the Pittsboro Railroad which occurred yesterday and the day before, by which the train on the said road was derailed and the lives of the passengers thereon seriously endangered, which accidents it is alleged were caused by the rotten cross-ties on the said railroad, whose condition endangers the lives of all persons who travel thereon."

—Charlotte Observer: On the 17th letters of patent were issued to Geo. G. Glenn, of Gastonia, covering a machine for restamping bottle caps. The one cap that is used universally, not only in the United States, but in foreign countries, is what is known as the crown cap. The cap is simple, made from tin with a cork disk inserted. There are from 50,000 to 100,000 bottlers in the United States alone using this special cap, and this machine for reshaping same, after having been used, will probably amount to a saving with the bottlers of probably fifty per cent., and will almost revolutionize the bottling business.

BELOVED MINISTER DEAD.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Laurinburg, N. C., July 26.—Rev. A. N. Ferguson died at his home about two miles north of this place at 2 o'clock this morning and will be buried at Laurel Hill church at 10 o'clock Saturday morning. He was pastor of Laurel Hill Presbyterian church (about five miles to the north of this town), for over thirty-five years, beginning with the second Sunday in June, 1876. He was a native of Moore county, a brother of Dr. K. M. Ferguson, of Southern Pines.

Mr. Ferguson was noted for faithfulness in all things, zeal in his ministry and a life of eminent piety and purity of Christian character and was greatly beloved by the whole county of Scotland.

Robeson—6 for Brown, 43 for Patterson.

At 6 o'clock when everybody was tired and worn completely out, a motion to adjourn until 9 o'clock was unanimously carried, the delegates quickly leaving the hall for headquarters in the LaFayette Hotel. Some retired for a few moments of much needed sleep while others remained on the ground with the wires, nearly all the delegations having held caucuses during the interim.

The Morning Session.

The convention somewhat afresh from the brief respite was called to order at 9:45 o'clock, a tedious wait having ensued while the "silent influences" were plainly at work. It was soon gathered that it was to be the field against Brown but the break was not scheduled until after several more ballots had been cast. But immediately the 354th ballot was called Hon. J. G. Shaw threw "the fat into the fire." He was recognized and made an earnest appeal for the nomination of Patterson. The wildest enthusiasm greeted his remarks from the Patterson quarters in the hall. Mr. W. A. Stewart, who, by the way, made the best seconding speech at the convention was recognized and made an enthusiastic speech in favor of Mr. Godwin, whom he declared the "nominee," though it is doubtful if at the time he knew of the landslide that was to follow to his candidate on the very next ballot. The 354th ballot was again called. Bladen asked to be passed over for the present and Columbus asked time for consultation. The contending delegations other than that for Mr. Patterson began to confer excitedly and the casual observer knew that something "was on." Bladen was called when order had been restored again and Mr. McCulloch cast the vote of the delegation 17 1-2 for Godwin and 2 1-2 for Patterson. Dr. Evans and Mr. Cromartie, both of Bladen, challenged the vote as cast by Mr. McCulloch, who conferred with his constituents and announced that a clerical error had been made. Bladen cast one for Brown, 16 for Godwin and 3 for Patterson. The challenges were withdrawn and Columbus was called. Col. Short announced 32 votes for Godwin and the roll call proceeded with difficulty on account of the cheering of the anti-Patterson element, New Hanover's and the votes of other counties being foreshadowed by their joining in the enthusiasm. Brunswick, as from the first ballot, cast 13 solidly for Godwin. Cumberland gave 29 to Patterson, 2 to Godwin and 3 to Brown. Harnett remained true to the last with her 24 votes for "her favorite son.' New Hanover followed with 24 for Godwin and 2 for Patterson; the solid vote of Robeson was cast 49 for Godwin with some evident chagrin, as the Harnett man had already been nominated.

Chairman McLean officially declared the vote and that Mr. Godwin was the nominee. The total vote was as follows: Brown, four; Godwin, 160; Patterson, 34. It was some minutes when quiet was restored and Messrs. Wm. Gilchrist, Jas. H. Cowan, of New Hanover; R. S. Bond, of Robeson, and E. F. McCulloch were appointed a committe to escort the nominee into the hall. Mr. Godwin's response was witty and pledged his best efforts to the party and to every interest of the District and State. He was received with the warmest applause, every delegate in the room joining heartily in the demonstration.

There were calls next for Mr. Patterson and he was presented to the convention by Col. McLean. Mr. Patterson accepted defeat gracefully and pledged his best efforts to the Democracy and to the nominee, whom he characterized as his personal friend.

Mr. Brown was next called and hoped that he would be as great in defeat as he would have been in victory. He accepted gracefully the will of the convention. He bore no ill feeling to anyone and was grateful to his friends for their loyal support. He had learned the lesson in life "to eat well, sleep well and forget well." He had voted the Democratic ticket since he was 19 years of age and expected to continue to do so, pledging his earnest support to the nominee.

Mr. Cook was called but was not in the hall. Mr. Stewart, manager for Mr. Godwin could not resist repeated cries of "Stewart, Stewart!" and responded in graceful and his always eloquent manner.

Upon motion of Mr. Martin S. Willard, of New Hanover, the convention tendered Fayetteville a unanimous vote of thanks for the hospitable manner in which it had entertained the visitors. A very cordial vote of thanks was also tendered Col. N. A. McLean, of Robeson, for the very excellent manner in which he presided over the sessions of the convention.

District Executive Committee.

Bladen—E. F. McCulloch.
Brunswick—Geo. H. Bellamy.
Columbus—H. C. Moffitt.
Cumberland—Q. K. Nimocks.
Harnett—R. G. Taylor.
New Hanover—Wm. E. Springer.
Robeson—N. A. McLean.

The chairman of the convention requested members of the committee to meet directly after adjournment for organization. The organization was perfected by the election of Mr. Bellamy, chairman, and Mr. Nimocks, secretary and treasurer.

Notes of the Convention.

A unique visitor to the convention was Col. Phil. McRae, of Harnett. Four years ago the Colonel took an oath to neither shave nor trim his locks until William Jennings Bryan is elected President of the United States. He was somewhat bewhiskered and his hair was after the fotball fashion when he loyally supported Bellamy in the Congressional Convention four years ago at Fayetteville. He is a sight now and his presence at the Convention this year afforded the only interest of the earlier part of the session.

There was one thing apparent at the Convention—that is, the death knell has been sounded for the unit rule in the Sixth District. All the delegates seemed to have an abhorrence even for the name of the thing. Political jobbery in conventions is also at an end if the straws show which way the wind blows. The "Square Deal" proposition seems to take wonderfully with Cape Fear Democrats just at present.

It is said that the pilotage fight at Wilmington had much to do with solidifying the vote of Brunswick and the favor in which Patterson and Godwin were held as "possibilities. In this connection they were exploding a joke about the Chamber of Commerce in the hotel to-day. It was to the effect that the Chamber had contributed to the election of Mr. Godwin, who assisted the pilots so valiantly in the State Senate when the question was before that body two years ago.

Cameron F. MacRae, Esq., was the "original" Patterson man with the New Hanover delegation. He voted for the Robeson man "first, last and all the time."

Sergeant-at-arms Monaghan, his assistants and corps of clever pages assisted no little with the work of the convention. Both Postal and Western Union messenger boys were equally as kind.

A large majority of the New Hanover delegation and several on-lookers at the Convention returned home last night on the belated A. & Y. train, a little worse for wear "but still in the ring." New Hanover had one of the most influential delegations at Fayetteville and while its first choice was not nominated, eminent satisfaction was expressed at the nomination of Mr. Godwin.

BRUNSWICK TELEPHONES

The Southport Herald has done a good work in agitating telephone connection from Southport through Brunswick county to Supply and Shallotte in that county and as far as Little River, Horry county, S. C.

The people along the line have encouraged the enterprise and the Herald this week announces that all the stock has been subscribed and that work will be commenced on the line just as soon as a charter can be procured. Mr. J. S. Craig, of Southport, has just completed a trip through the country to Supply, Shallotte and Little River getting up subscriptions to the capital stock of the line, and everywhere he met with encouragement and succes. It is to be a toll line and the people in the remote sections to be reached are enthusiastic over it.

There is no railroad or telegraph communication with Supply, Shallotte and Little River and they are only reached by steamer from Wilmington and Southport, requiring three or four days for communication each way. telephone line consequently will be a boon to the people of lower Brunswick and upper Horry and the enterprise will be greatly to the advantage of the busines men of Southport and Wilmington, as our merchants can reach their customers over the Wilmington-Southport telephone line.

The Southport Herald of Thursday, says: "This line is going to be a great thing for the section of the county through which it runs and is in accordance with a movement started by the Herald over a year ago."

NOT PREPARED FOR THE STRUGGLE

Revolutionaries in Russia Came to Wise Conclusion at St. Petersburg Yesterday.

WILL PREPARE FOR REVOLT

Manifestoes Issued by Revolutionary Groups to the Army, Navy and Other Classes—Want Peasants to Take Lead.

St. Petersburg, July 27.—At the end of a long series of conferences between the representatives of the central committees of the social Democrats, social revolutionists, peasants' league and workmens' councils, of Moscow and St. Petersburg, the Group of Toil, members of the outlawed Parliament, and professional leagues, it was decided not to attempt immediately to summon the people to declare a general strike or armed uprising. The determining factor in the decision was the advice of the revolutionary military committee, which reported that the time was not quite ripe. It was decided, however, to energetically push preparations and to address manifestos to the army and navy, peasants, workmen and the people generally.

The manifesto to the peasants in substance declares that the government, having denied land freedom, had dissolved Parliament in which the peasants' hopes were centered and they now had no reason to wait any longer.

The manifesto to the soldiers and sailors tells them they are brothers of the masses who are fighting for liberty and took an oath not only to defend the Emperor but the country, and it is their duty now to side with the people.

A general manifesto to the nation says the moment has arrived when the people must take liberty into their own hands. A separate address was issued to the Cossacks.

It develops that at the final conference there was considerable dissension. The railroad men and a large proportion of the workmens' organizations thought that the duty of taking the initiative fell to the peasantry, as the proletariat in the cities had already made sacrifices for the cause, but the representatives of the Peasants' League pointed out how impossible it was in the midst of the harvest work for the poor peasants to leave the fields without making starvation, next winter, certain for themselves and their families.

MEAT INSPECTION UNDER GOVERNMENT

must be separate from places where carcasses are prepared. Managers of establishments will not be permitted to employ any person affected with tuberculosis in any of the departments where carcasses are dressed, meats handled, or meat food products prepared. Butchers who have dressed diseased carcasses are required to cleanse and disinfect their hands and implements before touching carcasses. Employes who are unclean and careless of person will not be allowed to handle meats.

The provision relating to dyes, chemicals and preservatives is stringent. No meat or meat food product for inter-state commerce shall contain any substance which lessens its wholesomeness, nor any drug, chemidal or dye, unless spesifidally provided for by a Federal statute, or any preservative other than common salt, sugar, wood smoke, vinegar, pure spices, and, pending further inquiry, salt petre. Meats and meat food products for export may contain preservatives in proportion which do not conflict with the laws of the foreign country to which they are exported, but all meats or meat food products, so prepared for export, mrst be treated and kept in compartments of the establishment separate and apart from those in which meat is prepared for inter-state shipment. Sdch meats may not enter domestic trade under any circumstances.

All animals suspected of disease on their ante-mortem inspection shall be slaughtered separately and apart from all other animals under the careful supervision of Federal inspection. The new law does not authorize inspection of animals for local trade. Under the new form of inspection the shipper will be absolutely protected and will receive full price for all animals which pass the inspection.

Special provision is made for the destruction, for food purposes, of all carcasses and parts of carcasses and meat food products, which, upon inspection, or re-inspection, prove to be unclean, unsound, unhealthful, unwholesome, or otherwise unfit for human food.

All stamps, labels and certificates showing that meat and meat food products have been inspected and passed are required either to be affixed by a government employe or to be affixed by an employe of teh establishment under the personal supervision of a government employe.

For the purpose of enforcing the law and the regulations, inspectors and other government employes under the direction of the inspector must have access to establishments at all times by day or night, whether the establishment be operated or not.

The provisions in regard to labeling carcasses which are found diseased and which have been condemned, are very complete. A system of tags, numbered in duplicate, with reports to the inspector in charfie, who, in turn, reports to Washington, will make it impossible for any carcass which has once been tagged by a department employe to escape the vigilance of the inspectors.

Running through the regulations is a carefully prepared scheme which will effectually prevent the entrance to sausage, curing, canning and other chopped-meat establishments of any carcasses which were not inspected and passed by Federal inspectors at the time of slaughter.

All inspectors in charge of the meat inspection stations are directed to notify the municipal authorities of the character of inspection and to co-operate with such authorities.

WILL LYNCH MAN AND WOMAN

Horrible Murder of Kentucky Lady for Robbery.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Barboursville, Ky., July 27.—After an exciting chase in which bloodhounds were used, Jesse Fitzgerald, a negro, was arrested by a posse to-day and lodged in jail charged with robbing and murdering Mrs. Robert Broughton at her home near this city Wednesday night. Fitzgerald, it is stated, made a full confession of the crime, which was a horrible one. Mrs. Broughton's head was hacked almost off with a knife. A negro woman servant who was the only other occupant of the house, is also under arrest. It is reported that a mob is forming in the neighborhood of the Broughton home and that an attempt will be made to lynch Fitzgerald and possibly the woman.

ADVERTISE IN THE STAR

LORD DOUGLAS BEING TRACED

Bigamist Slinking Between Two Continents—He is Probably Now in Mexico Somewhere.

—Asheville Special, July 26: Through the efforts of Senator Overman and Judge Pritchard some additional facts have been ascertained with reference to the recent movements of the notorious bigamist, Lord Douglas, who married Miss Josephine Hood at New Iberia, La., last December. For instance, Douglas has visited England, the land of his nativity, since his marriage to Miss Hood. The latter part of March, so a well authenticated report has it, he was in England. but sailed for America after a very short stay there. He returned to Mexico, where it is believed he is now located. He has, within the past few days, been seen in two or three Mexican towns by the police authorities of Mexico, who are apparently camping close on his trail. He has assumed more aliases, calling himself Pierce for a time, and later made the easier transition from Douglas to McDougall. He is wearing green goggles, presumably with a view of concealing a wart on his left eyelid. Douglas has apparently grown very uneasy. It is said that he scans all the American papers within reach every morning before breakfast to see what the American papers have learned of his movements. Another sign or uneasiness is that he never remains in one town more than a day or so at a time. Since Douglas has been located hope has revived that his capture will very soon be brought about. One bit of information received within the past day or so is to the effect that Douglas' first wife was an English woman of prominence and culture.

APPEARING OLD

Acts as a Bar to Profitable Employment.

You cannot afford to grow old.

In these days of strenuous competition it is necessary to maintain, as long as possible ones youthful appearance.

It is impossible to do this without retaining a luxurious growth of hair.

The presence of Dandruff indicates the presence of a burrowing germ which lives and thrives on the roots of the hair until it causes total baldness.

Newbro's Herpicide is the only known destroyer of this pest, and it is as effective as it is delightful to use

Accept no substitute—there is none.

IMPOVERISHED BLOOD.

The chief symptom, at least the most obvious one, of anaemia is pallor. The skin is white, the whites of the eyes are even whiter than usual, the lips are light in color and the pink color of the nail beds is absent. But pallor is sometimes deceptive and may be present even when there is little or no real anaemia. This occurs in certain cases in which there is an unequal distribution of the blood, the surface of the body being poorly supplied, while the central organs are congested.

Other signs of anaemia are irritability of the heart, palpitation occurring on slight provocation; indigestion, loss of appetite, constipation, shortness of breath, nervousness, weakness and inability to do any hard work with either brain or muscles, swelling of the feet and ankles in the evening, headache, dizziness, ringing in the ears and sometimes spots before the eyes. All these signs point to an impoverishment of the blood, and the suspicion is confirmed by a direct examination of a drop under the microscope.

In the treatment of anaemia, which is very frequently a secondary condition, the first care is to discover and remove if possible the underlying cause. The cure is helped along, however, and hastened by certain measures which we may briefly enumerate. The diet of every anaemic person must be carefully looked to. It is usually the quality of the food rather than its quantity that needs regulating. Tender, not overcooked meat, milk, eggs and other albuminous articles are to be preferred to vegetables and starchy foods. The juices of fruits and of lettuce, celery and other salads, without the woody substance, are useful as promoting digestion and accelerating the nutritive changes in the body.

Next to food fresh air and sunlight are the most powerful stimulants to blood making functions.

All exercise that causes fatigue should be avoided, but a quiet stroll, a drive over smooth roads, and especially sitting or lying in the open air, occasionally in the direct sunlight, the head being protected, are of great value to the anaemic invalid, If sitting outdoors is impossible the chair or sofa should be continuously by a wide open window, and at night all the windows in the room should be open.

Cold douching or bathing is of great benefit, but the judicious adaptation of this curative measure to the individual needs calls for medical skill, as does also the prescription of iron and other blood making drugs.—Youth's Companion.

A Merciful Punishment.

Sergeant Nolan has a small but active wife of whom he stands in considerable awe. One day the sergeant lost his quick Irish temper. The object of his wrath was a dog belonging to the wife of one of his superior officers. The lady overheard some of his statements and took him severely to task.

"You ought to be ashamed to say such things and to lose your temper with an animal," she said, while the big sergeant looked shamefaced and anxious. "I shall report your language."

"To—to her, ma'am?" faltered the penitent.

"To my husband," said the lady haughtily.

"So do, ma'am," said Sergeant Nolan cheerfully. "I well desarve it. I was only fearing you meant to tell my wife."

Fond Memories.

A hard headed old Pittsburg manufacturer who made his fortune, as he expresses it, "with his coat off," was induced by his daughters to accompany them to a Wagner concert, the first he had ever attended. The next day he happened to meet an acquaintance who had seen him the night before, who asked:

"I suppose you enjoyed the concert last night, Mr. Brown?"

"Yes. It took me back to the days of my youth," the old man said, with a reminiscent sigh.

"Ah, summer days in the country, girl in a lawn dress, birds singing, and all that?"

"No, the days when I worked in a boiler shop in Scranton."—Success Magazine.

Churning In Arabia.

An Arab was lunching in a New York restaurant.

"You have heard of the thoroughbred Arabian steed of the desert," he said. "You have heard of its beauty, its docility, its intelligence, its endurance. Did you know that it churned the family butter?"

"No!"

"It is a fact. Among our desert tribes when butter is needed the milk is put in a sheepskin bag and tied by a short rope to the horse's saddle. The horse is then urged into a trot, and this gait is kept up until the milk in the sheepskin is joggled into butter. A fine, firm, smooth butter it is."

THE COTTON MARKETS.

New York, July 27.—The cotton market was very nervous and irregular to-day, the feature being August notices, which were issued to the extent of about 30,000 bales according to estimates, and which precipitated considerable liquidation of the near months while later positions ruled steady in spite of favorable weather reports as a result of covering. The market closed at a decline of 6 to 7 points on the old crop and unchanged to 9 points higher on the new. Sales for the day were estimated at 350,000 bales.

The opening was steady at unchanged prices to a decline of 7 points, the losses being on the old crop months, and inside of the first half hour August sold off to 9.86. There was a renewal of the August liquidation during the afternoon, however, and that month declined to 9.28 or 12 points net lower. The new crop months barely responded to this decline and toward the close ruled quite firm on covering and buying for a turn inspired by rather less favorable private crop reports. The close was steady. Some demand was reported for low grade cotton from the local stock.

Receipts at the ports to-day 4,790 bales against 3,314 last week and 15,180 last year. For the week 30,000 bales against 25,047 last week and 102,031 last year. To-day's receipts at New Orleans 1,113 bales against 2,645 last year, and at Houston 224 bales against 1,973 last year.

THE GORGEOUS EAST.

Luxury and Squalor Are Closely Linked In India.

Opulence and poverty are close companions in India. An observer writes: "One of the first objects that caught my attention when I began to look about me in Bombay was a man in very conspicuous vesture. His head was crowned by a large and showy turban, folded with bands of gold, and he wore a robe of rose tinted satin, with pendant earrings of pearl and a necklace of amethysts and emeralds. But when I looked below these splendors I found them supported by legs in frayed cotton pajamas and feet shuffling upon old carpet slippers. And when I came to know more it seemed to me that this figure was typical of India, in its strange mixture of pomp and squalor, of gorgeousness and grime, of luxury and discomfort, of gold and ashes, of ideal beauty and naked, realistic wretchedness.

"There is a certain amount of luxury with an absence of elementary necessaries, more show than comfort. There are places where a silver ewer is more easily to be got than enough clean water to wash your hands or a glass of it pure enough to drink. The Anglo-Indian expects to sit down to a meal of four courses in the midst of the wilderness, but he does not hope to get a slice of nourishing fresh beef or mutton. His elaborate menu at dinner is largely made up of the flesh of animals which have been running about the compound at lunchtime or whose bodies have been conveyed to him in tins from Australia and America. There are many places where he can have iced champagne, but not milk which can be put into his tea with safety.

"Life is very public in India. Most of the bungalows have no internal passages. All rooms open into one another or upon the veranda, and if you want to know if anybody is at home the simplest way is to lift up the curtain and look in. Lastly, the luxury is compatible with the denial of some things, without which we suppose that existence would stand still. You cannot say that the drains are good or that they are bad in an Indian house, for as a rule there are no drains. The sanitary arrangement is precisely that which prevailed in England in the fifteenth century and in Scotland in the eighteenth.

"And the 'gorgeous east,' with its external glitter and its inward limitations, comes home to us again when we reflect that a man who perhaps rides abroad with a cavalry escort before a salaaming multitude lives at home under conditions which no English town council would permit if they were inflicted on a day laborer in a common lodging house."—Chicago News.

MEAT INSPECTION UNDER GOVERNMENT

All Slaughter Houses Must be Thoroughly Cleaned and Kept in Sanitary Condition—Meats for Interstate and Foriegn Trade

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Washington, D. C., July 27.—Secretary Wilson to-day made public the regulations under the new law governing the inspection of meat products for inter-state and foreign trade. They do not, however, cover the subject of inter-state transportation of meat or the miscropic inspection of pork for export. Regulations on these subjects, it was stated, would be issued later. The regulations issued to-day are stringent throughout and are in line with the best authorities on the subjects of sanitation, preservatives, dyes, chemicals and condemnation of diseased carcasses.

The general regulations provide that the scope of the inspection shall be to cover all slaughtering, packing, meat-canning, salting, rendering, or similar establishments whose meats or meat food products, in while or in part, enter into inter-state or foreign commerce, unless exempted from inspection by the Secretary of Agriculture.

All animals carcasses and meat products will be subjected to a rigid inspection. Re-inspection will be had wherever necessary. The sanitation regulations require the establishments in which animals are slaughtered, or meat and meat food products are prepared, cured, packed, stored or handled, to be suitably lighted and vestilated, and to be maintained in a sanitary condition. All work in such establishments must be performed in a cleanly and sanitary manner. All portions of the building must be whitewashed or painted, or they must be washed, scraped, or otherwise rendered sanitary; old floors and old equipment which cannot be made sanitary must be removed and replaced by suitable essentials. All trucks, trays, chutes, platforms, racks, tables, knives and cleavers, and all utensils and machinery used in handling meats must be thoroughly cleansed daily. Employes of the establishments must all wear clothing of a material that is easily cleansed, and toilet rooms

BRAZIL'S WELCOME TO SECRETARY ROOT

(By Cable to The Morning Star.)

Rio de Janeiro, July 27.—The United States cruiser Charleston, with Secretary Root on board, entered the harbor from Bahia at 7 o'clock this morning and was saluted with 19 guns from the forts. The American Ambassador, Mr. Griscom, and the Brazilian Ambassador to the United States, Senor Nabuco, went out and boarded the Charleston, which was soon surrounded by hundreds of noisy launches and ferry boats, crowded with people anxious to greet the American Secretary of State. The latter and his family, accompanied by Senor Nabuco, lasded in the thirty-oar royal barge, John VI., amidst the salutes of assembled warships, including those of Brazil, Germany and Argentina. On landing Mr. Root was welcomed by Gen. Rio-Branco, the Brazilian foreign minister, as the representative of President Alves. A reception was then held beneath a floral arch at the landing place, which was surrounded by troops and many thousands of cheering people. Secretary Root was welcomed in a brief address by Gen. Rio-Branco, who spoke of the advantages of a Pan-American alliance. An enormous procession, composed in part of cavalry, carriages, police and lancers, escorted Secretary Root through the streets. Ambassador Nabuco rode in the carriage with Mrs. Root, while Gen. Rio-Branco rode with Secretary Root. The streets through which the procession passed to the historical Abrantes Palace were profusely decorated with flowers. The palace has been given over to the occupancy of Mr. Root and his party, through the courtesy of the Silva family. Here the Americans were greeted by throngs of students, who enthusiastically applauded speeches by Secretary Root and American Ambassador Griscom. The latter, who spoke in Portuguese, made a hit with his auditors. Secretary Root and Ambassador Griscom visited President Alves at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

MURDERER SAVED FROM GALLOWS

TO HAVE HANGED YESTERDAY

Writ of Habeas Corpus Prevented Execution of Prominent Alabamian Yesterday—Novel Situation—Sentence Hangs Over Him Daily.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Birmingham, Ala., July 27.—Members of the legal profession of Jefferson county are in a quandary to-night over the most novel action in a criminal case ever taken in the State. Last night Judge Samuel L. Weaver, of the Criminal Court, granted a writ of habeas corpus in the case of John Williams, of Cullman, Ala., just twelve hours before the time set for the execution of the prisoner for the murder of State Senator R. L. Hipp. The writ was made returnable to-day. The prisoner was convicted in the Circuit Court of Cullman county and the Supreme Court of Alabama affirmed the sentence. Williams was brought here for safekeeping.

The petition for the writ of habeas corpus was made on an insanity plea, and the question which has been argued by counsel all day in the criminal court, is whether a Jefferson county official has jurisdiction and authority to issue the writ. The arguments before the court were continued until to-morrow. Meantime, the hour for the legal execution had expired and it is thought a new date for the hanging will have to be set in case of failure to sustain the insanity plea. Governor Jenks, however, came to the rescue and granted the prisoner a respite until to-morrow. He will grant respites from day to day until the question is settled. Sentiment in this community, and in North Alabama where the crime was committed, has not been so thoroughly aroused since the famous Hawes riot in 1888.

It was learned to-day that last night when Sheriff Orear, of Cullman county, accompanied by several deputies, entered the jail here to secure Williams, who was to have been hanged at Cullman to-day, Williams seized a section of iron pipe, which the prisoner had torn loose from the sewer connection in the cell and threatened to kill the first man who attempted to enter. Williams said he realized that removal from the Birmingham jail meant his death and as he had to die anyway, he might just as well die on the spot as elsewhere. Not one of the officers dared to enter the cell. Finally, a quantity of ammonia was secured and dashed on the prisoner through the bars. The fumes of the drug overcame him and the officers were able to handcuff him. However, his resistance caused such a delay that the officers missed the night train on which they expected to take Williams to Cullman. Meantime the condemned man's son, Frank, secured a writ of habeas corpus from Judge Weaver. This writ served to stay the execution. Troops slept on their arms all night, having been ordered by the Governor to accompany the sheriff and prisoner to Cullman to preserve order.

SAGE LEFT FORTUNE OF OVER $70,000,000

Willed His Millions to His Widow, With Exception of Some Small Amounts to Nephews and and Nieces—Sister $10,000.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

New York, July 27.—The will of Russell Sage, which was filed for probate to-day, bequeaths all of his estate to his widow, Margaret O. Sage, after the payment of $25,000 to each of Mr. Sage's nephews and nieces and $10,000 to his sister, Mrs. Fanny Chapin, of Oneida, N. Y. Mrs. Chapin has died since the will was made. The will also provides that in case of any of its beneficiaries contesting the probate of it they shall be cut off from any share in the estate. There was nothing in the will to show the value of Mr. Sage's estate. The will was dated February 11, 1901.

The first section provides for the payment of Mr. Sage's debts and funeral expenses. By the second Mr. Sage bequeaths $10,000 to Mrs. Fanny Chapin, wife of Samuel Chapin, of Oneida, N. Y., his sister.

By the third he gave $25,000 to each of his nephews and nieces and provided that in case any of them died before him their allotment should be distributed among their issue.

The fourth section provides "All real estate and remainder I give to my wife, Margaret Olivia Sage, to have and to hold the same to her self."

By the sixth section Mr. Sage empowered to executors to sell all his real estate. In the seventh section he provided that in case his bequests to his sister, nephews and nieces should lapse or fail the amounts so bequeathed shall revert to Mrs. Sage.

By the eighth section Margaret Olivia Sage, Dr. John P. Munn, Almond Goodwin "long my confidential and trusted assistants," were appointed executrix and executors of the will, and it was provided that in case Mr. Osborne refused or was unable to serve as executor, Edward C. Osborne, should fill the vacancy.

Under the ninth section the executors were authorized to rent an office to transact the business of Mr. Sage's estate.

The tenth section revokes all former or other wills or testamentary dispositions at any time heretofore made.

The eleventh section provides that "should any of the beneficiaries contest or aid in contesting the will they shall be absolutely barred and cut off from any share in my estate."

Attorneys for Mrs. Sage estimate the value of the estate between $70,000,000 and $80,000,000, of which $30,000,000 is outstanding in loans.

BUSINESS KNOWS NO HALTING.

Even Packing Houses Exposures Do Not Hurt It.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

New York, July 27.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say:

"Trade, industrial and crop developments are generally favorable. In the leading isdustries more than seazonable activity rules, with the iron and steel trades leading in volume, demand and output. Building continues active and materials move well, through ease in Southern yellow pine is expected to last until the Autumn. The crop situation seems to lose nothing as the growing season advances.

"The heavy movement of winter wheat to market while tending to some ease in prices has a favorable side when the export business is considered. Reports are that large future business in this direction has already been booked. An interesting sidelight on the pessimistic predictions current some time ago as to the meat trade is found in advices from Chicago that cattle and hogs prices are at the highest point of the year. Railway traffic returns point to an unprecedently heavy volume of business offerings. Export trade in iron and steel keeps up surprisingly well, this being made possible, probably, by excellent trade in foreign markets.

"Business failures in the United States for the week ended July 26 number 171 against 188 last week; 197 in the like week in 1905; 174 in 1904, and 192 in 1903."

ROTTEN BASEBALL UMPIRE.

Charged With Selling Game to Win Money.

Minneapolis, Minn., July 27.—Formal charges that Umpire Owens placed bets on the Minneapolis-Columbus games, the latter to win, for the benefit of a gambling combine in which he was interested, have been preferred by Secretary Lidyard, of the Minneapolis base ball club. This is the result of decisions which provoked riotous demonstrations here last week. The Minneapolis management has been working on the case ever since, and has now secured evidence that is believed will be sufficient to convict the umpire. One affidavit states that on the occasion of the game of July 18, he put up money and paid a commission of 25 per cent. to the umpire. Two other affidavits swear that they put up $200 of Owens' money, who gave them a commission of 25 per cent. for placing it.

TWO NEGROES LYNCHED.

Mob Took Them From Sheriff and Hung Them.

Tampa, Fla., July 27.—John Black and Will Reagin, negroes, were lynched by a mob of two hundred men near Fort Gardner, Polk county, last night. The negroes killed Ed. Granger, a white turpentine operator, without provocation, and were captured by Sheriff Wiggins and three deputies near the scene of the killing a few hours afterward. At a bridge crossing, two miles from Bartow, a mob halted the sheriff and posse and took possession of the prisoners. Both confessed, however, and were hanged to a nearby tree, being afterward riddled with bullets. The mob immediately dispersed and the bodies were found this morning.

A Tragic Finish.

A watchman's neglect permitted a leak in the great Northern Sea dyke, which a child's finger could have stopped or become a ruinous break, devastating an entire province of Holland. In like manner Kenneth McIver, of Vanceboro, Me., permitted a little cold to go unnoticed until a tragic finish was only averted by Dr. King's New Discovery. He writes: "Three doctors gave me up to die with lung inflammation caused by a neglected cold; but Dr. King's New Discovery saved my life. Guaranteed best cough and cold cure, at all druggists. 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

PROPHET DOWIE ONLY TRUSTEE

Federal Judge at Chicago Renders Decision Concerning Zion City, Ill.

RECEIVER NAMED BY COURT

It Was Decided That Neither Dowie Nor Voliva Own Property Value at $12,000,000 to $21,000,000—Belongs to Church.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Chicago, July 27.—Neither John Alexander Dowie, the founder, nor Wilbur Glenn Voliva, present general overseer, is owner of the properties of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, including Zion City, Ills., and said to be worth from $12,000,000 to $21,000,000, according to a decision handed down to-day by Judge K. M. Landis, of the United States District Court. Judge Landis declared the property of Zion City to be a trust estate, and named John G. Hately, a member of the Chicago Board of Trade, receiver of the church's property, and ordered the election on September 18, of an overseer (trustee of the church's property) by members of the church at Zion City. Judge Landis will decide later what compensation Dowie will be allowed for his past services to the church. The court rules that the capital of Zion properties, contributions of property, and money from various persons, was given to Dowie in trust for the church. Judge Landis declared void the conveyance of the Zion property to Alexander Granger by Voliva under power of attorney from Dowie. Judge Landis quoted from writings of Dowie to show that the latter had always regarded himself as trustee of the property of the church. The adjudication in the bankruptcy proceedings against Dowie was also set aside so that pending litigation against Dowie may automatically be restrained until the entire litigation is ended.

Receiver Hately's bond of $25,000 was approved late in the afternoon by the court, and Hately went to Zion City and assumed charge of the property.

Uproots the Church.

Zion City, Ils., July 27.—Deacon John A. Lewis, who is recognized as the spokesman of Dowie and who was chosen by Dowie to manage the paradise plantation of Mexico, the rock over which it is alleged the Dowie and Voliva partisans split, had the following to say of the decision of Judge Landis:

"If the decree of Judge Landis stands, the Christian Catholic Apostolic Church of Zion is uprooted. The church is founded on the theory of a theocracy. How then can an election under the laws of Cook county proclaim who can be leader of the rest. I maintain that God Almighty alone can designate who shall be the first apostle. I firmly believe that the Lord has designated John Alexandie Dowie to lead the hosts to the paths of light. Therefore, when a special election is called the whole fabric of the church is destroyed. If God designates the leader how can man choose him. As far as property rights are concerned, they matter little to us. The great question is that of spiritual control. Upon that the very foundation of the church depends. I am sure Dr. Dowie will never be satisfied with the decision as rendered."

Dowie declined to discuss the court's decision. He was too ill to be in court to-day.
